

Michaela Coventry comes from a strong dance and arts production background. In 2015 Michaela will be the Executive Producer of the new music company Speak Percussion <http://speakpercussion.com>. Prior to this position Michaela worked as the General Manager/Executive Producer of Megafun, a company which provides creative and technical services to theatre, events, exhibitions, public art and interactive multimedia, and was Executive Producer of the contemporary dance company Lucy Guerin Inc for seven years. She currently sits on the Arts House Advisory Panel in Melbourne as well as the Board of Dancehouse. Prior to joining Lucy Guerin Inc her previous work included being the Manager of Stalker and Marrugeku, and the Project Manager at Performance Space in Sydney. Michaela was a board member of Ausdance NSW from 2003 to 2006 and a board member/ Chair for Pact Theatre from 2002 to 2006. Michaela and her family live, work and go to school in Collingwood and Abbotsford.